George Lyon Memorial Youth (Fund-Trust-Legacy) Guidelines

The George Lyons Memorial Youth award was initiated by a generous contribution in honor of George Lyon, avid sportsman and member of the Chambersburg Rod and Gun Club. The Board of Directors invested the contribution to establish a fund to give financial assistance to young people in pursuit of the objectives of the Club. Only the interest generated from the invested principle shall be used for the grant(s). The funds granted each year shall be predicated on the amount earned from the principle during the previous fiscal year. Contributions to the George Lyons Memorial Youth award shall be applied to the principle and not used to finance grants. In the event that future funds earned from the invested principle exceeds $500, the Board shall at their discretion consider the establishment of a yearly scholarship to a student who will pursue a post-secondary education.
